Tiger Classification Guidelines

Tiger classifications will follow the generally accepted guidelines that have become standard.

Factory Stock: This class is intended for owners who are attempting to retain their Tigers as close to original as possible. LAT options allowed. Replacements as close to original as possible are encouraged.

Personalized: This class is intended for owners who have personalized their Tigers to suit their intended uses and desires. Major modifications in this category are not appropriate.

Modified: This class is intended for owners who have substantially altered their Tiger's appearance and/or made major engineering changes.
